Introduction to the Leo Club Program

Leo program history and objective

In 1957, the Glenside Lions Club, Pennsylvania, USA sponsored the world's first Leo club, the Abington High School Leo Club with 35 students.

In October 1967, the Lions Clubs International (LCI) Board of Directors adopted the Leo Club Program as an official program of the association. The objective of the Leo Club Program is:

"...to provide the youth of the world with an opportunity for development and contribution, individually and collectively, as responsible members of the local, national and international community."

Leo clubs fulfill this objective every day and are an asset to the community. Leo club activities and projects enhance the community and help young people develop and practice leadership, organization and social skills. Leo club involvement can instill in young people a lifetime commitment to helping others.

Leo motto

Leadership: Leos develop skills as organizers and motivators of their peers.

Experience: Leos learn the importance of cooperation through community service.

Opportunity: Young people are given an opportunity to excel, to develop positive character traits and to receive recognition for their contributions to the community.

IN ACCESS THE FUTURE

"...TO PROVIDE THE YOUTH OF THE WORLD WITH AN OPPORTUNITY FOR DEVELOPMENT AND CONTRIBUTION,
INDIVIDUALLY AND COLLECTIVELY, AS RESPONSIBLE MEMBERS OF THE
LOCAL, NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY."

International network

Lions Clubs International is the world's premier community service organization, with 1.3 million members. There are more than 45,000 Lions clubs in approximately 200 countries. Regardless of the language Lions speak, religion they practice or politics they support, all are dedicated to helping people in need.

Leo clubs are part of the Lions international network. Leos also have their own network of approximately 5,550 Leo clubs in more than 130 nations. The international scope of LCI gives Leo and Lions club members a global identity.

Sponsoring a Leo club: why and how

Leo club sponsorship inspires Lions club members through involvement with their community's youth. Connections to youth can bring new energy to a Lions club. The sponsoring Lions club will also become more visible in the community with exposure to new audiences, such as young professionals, students and parents of school-age children. Leo clubs are also a way to mentor future community leaders and help foster future Lions.

Relationship between Lions and Leos

Leo clubs are a sponsored affiliation of Lions clubs. The sponsoring Lions club is responsible for guiding and counseling its Leo club. By working closely with Leos, Lions ensure that their sponsored Leo club operates within and benefits from the policies of LCI.

A Lion is appointed to serve as an advisor for the Leo club. This Lion should be someone who enjoys working with youth. The Leo club advisor serves as a mentor to the Leo club officers and members. The sponsoring Lions club is encouraged to appoint the Leo club advisor as a member of the Lions club's board of directors. Much of the guidance for the Leo club is carried out through the Leo club advisor.

School-based Leo clubs often require a faculty advisor. This may be a teacher, counselor or other member of the school's faculty, who acts as a liaison between the school and Leo club.

Guidance for the Leo club is exercised in one or more of the following ways, agreed upon by the Leo and Lions club:

1. The Leo club advisor or a member of the sponsoring Lions club should attend each Leo club or Leo board of directors' meeting.
2. Three representatives from the Lions and Leo club should meet monthly to discuss mutual interests and plans, and to review actions of the Leo club and/or its board of directors.
3. If attending meetings is difficult, Leos should submit a copy of their club or board meeting minutes to the Lions club for review.

LCI suggests that the sponsoring Lions club verify and follow local laws and customs dictating the provision of background checks for adults working with young people.

Leo club designations

Lions clubs can sponsor community or school-based Leo clubs:

- Community-based Leo clubs offer membership to any eligible young person within the local area of the Lions club. These clubs meet at a location in the community and the Leo club advisor is a member of the sponsoring Lions club.

EXPERIENCE

- School-based Leo clubs draw on members from one school; often, the school requires the appointment of a faculty-advisor who is a teacher or school administrator, to assist the Leo club advisor who is a Lion. The school must agree to fulfill Leo Club Program responsibilities and the Leo club must agree to follow the policies, insurance requirements and regulations of the school. The Leo club is subject to the same rules established by the school authorities for all student organizations and extracurricular activities. Before the Leo club is organized, the Lions club and school should agree on procedures for organizing club activities on and off school property, which adhere to school policies and LCI board policy.

Leo clubs are either designated as Alpha Leo clubs or Omega Leo clubs:

- Alpha clubs: For young people between 12 years old and the age of legal adulthood in their country. Alpha clubs are often based in primary and secondary schools.
- Omega clubs: For young people between the age of legal adulthood in their country and an age that is determined appropriate by the respective Lions multiple district (or single district if it is not a sub-district of a multiple district) where the Omega Leo club is sponsored.

Organizing a Leo club

The success of the Leo club depends on positive involvement of Lions and the Leo club advisor. Once the Lions club agrees to sponsor a Leo club, it should:

1. Appoint a Leo club advisor and a Leo club advisory committee with at least three members, including the Leo club advisor. The Leo club advisory committee attends Leo club and Leo board of directors' meetings. Lions clubs can contact the district or multiple district Leo club chairperson for support.
2. Decide if the new Leo club will be community or school-based. Contact the school or other organization to ensure interest and support for a club. Agree on the policies and regulations of Leo club activities with school or community officials.
3. Obtain the names of potential Leos from schools, universities, colleges, houses of worship, youth groups and friends and relatives of Lions club members.
4. Organize a Leo club formation meeting to explain the Leo Club Program to potential members:
  - a. Invite young people to this meeting through posters and notices sent to schools, religious youth groups, community programs and the local media. (See the Resources section of this handbook for press release samples.)
  - b. Answer potential members' questions concerning membership, the relationship with the sponsoring Lions club and activities undertaken by Leos.
  - c. Provide promotional materials to each meeting participant. Leo club materials are available in the Leo Club Organization Kit and from the Youth Programs Department at International Headquarters.
  - d. In this meeting or a follow up meeting(s), prospective Leos can choose Leo leaders (by electing the Leo club president, vice president, secretary and treasurer) and discuss the projects they would like to adopt.
  - e. Distribute the Application for Membership (Leo-50). Ask prospective members to share information about the club and bring a friend to the next meeting.

Leo club certification

The Youth Programs Department at International Headquarters certifies new Leo clubs upon receipt of the Leo Club Organization Report form (Leo-51). Certification entitles a Leo club and its sponsoring Lions club use of the Leo name and emblem, and clubs and members are eligible for LCI awards and recognition. Once a club is certified, the sponsoring Lions club receives the Certificate of Organization, a Leo Club Sponsor Banner Patch and Leo Club Extension Certificates for the Lions club president and the Leo club advisor. The official organization date of a Leo club is the date that the club is certified by the Youth Programs Department at International Headquarters.

Organization fees

A sponsoring Lions club pays a one-time Leo club organization fee of US$100. This fee covers:

- The cost of Lions club sponsor and Leo officer materials.
- The Leo club Certificate of Organization.
- Entrance fees for 20 Leo new members, which includes 20 free Leo New Member Kits containing:
  - Leo lapel pin
  - Leo club membership card
  - Leo club certificate
  - Leo member handbook.

If there are more than 20 originating Leo club members, a US$5 entrance fee is charged to the sponsoring Lions club account for each additional member and a Leo New Member Kit will be provided.

Fees are processed through the Youth Programs Department at International Headquarters. Postage fees and taxes are the responsibility of the Lions club.

The Leo club organization fee can be either:

- Billed directly to the sponsoring Lions club account; or
- Paid at the time of applying for certification of a new Leo club (checks received will be applied to the Lions club account balance).

Processing time

The entire certification process can take four to six weeks. Generally, Leo New Member Kits are shipped within two weeks after receipt of the Leo Club Organization Report form (Leo-51). Each Leo club Certificate of Organization is hand-lettered and sent by separate mail. Unless otherwise requested, all Leo club materials are forwarded to the Leo club advisor.

THERE IS NO LIMIT TO
THE NUMBER OF LEO
CLUBS THAT A SINGLE LIONS CLUB
CAN SPONSOR.

Annual Leo club sponsor levy

In August, each Lions club that sponsors a Leo club is assessed an annual levy of US$90 (or currency equivalent). The number of Leo club members does not affect the levy.

Pro-rated levies for new clubs

Leo clubs organized during the fiscal year (July 1 to June 30) are not charged the full US$90 Leo levy. Instead, a pro-rated Leo levy is charged. Clubs that are officially certified in the months of:

July, August or September pay US$67.50 or currency equivalent.

October, November or December pay US$45 or currency equivalent.

January, February or March pay US$22.50 or currency equivalent.

April, May or June do not pay a levy for the current fiscal year.

The sponsoring Lions club can pay the levy from its administrative or fundraising account. Or, the Leo club may decide to reimburse the sponsoring Lions club for the amount of the levy.

A single Lions club usually sponsors a Leo club. The district governor can give written approval for two or more Lions clubs to jointly sponsor a single Leo club. The Lions club sponsors will have equal representation on matters related to the Leo club. However, only one Lions club can be designated to serve as the liaison with International Headquarters concerning Leo club billings and administration. There is no limit to the number of Leo clubs that a single Lions club can sponsor.

OPPORTUNITY

Launch the Leo club

Once the Leo Club Organization Report form has been submitted to the Youth Programs Department at International Headquarters, the Leo club will function under the guidance of the Leo club advisor. Leo club officers should be invited to attend a Lions club meeting before the installation ceremony of a new Leo club to plan the ceremony together. (See New Officer Installation in the Resources section of this handbook.)

For a successful ceremony invite:

- Lions club members
- Leo club members' parents
- School and/or community representatives
- Lions and Leo district officers
- Local media representatives.

The installation ceremony can promote the club and recruit potential members. A sample press release to publicize a new Leo club is available in the Resources section of this handbook.

Leo club administration

Once a new Leo club is certified and the installation ceremony has taken place, it is time to begin the work of a healthy and successful club. The Leo club advisor and Leo officers are critical to the club's success and will want to show strong leadership and organization skills to inspire committed membership.

The Leo club advisor is a Lion who attends Leo club meetings and acts as a liaison between the sponsoring Lions club and Leo club. The advisor works closely with the Leo club president and is a source of support and guidance to Leo club officers, when needed. Leo club advisors act as mentors for Leos. A non-Lion such as a teacher or school administrator may serve as faculty-advisor in a school-based Leo club.

Officers' role

Leo club president: A Leo who is elected by fellow club members. The president manages club and board meetings. The president instructs other club officers concerning their responsibilities and includes all members in decision-making processes. With the club secretary, the president submits timely reports to the sponsoring Lions club and the Youth Programs Department at International Headquarters.

Leo club vice president: A Leo who assists the president throughout the year. The vice president assumes the duties of president if the elected president cannot complete the term.

Leo club secretary: A Leo who maintains club records and meeting minutes and submits these documents to the sponsoring Lions club on a regular basis. The secretary maintains lists of officers, committee appointments, attendance records and membership rosters. The secretary is also responsible for submitting the Leo Club Officers and Membership Report form (Leo-72) and the Successful Leo Club Project or Activity Report form (Leo-SPA) to the Youth Programs Department at International Headquarters. (See the Resources section of this handbook.)

Leo club treasurer: A Leo who receives and deposits all money into either the:

- Administrative account which contains funds raised from fellow club members. These funds support the administration of the club.
- Fundraising account which contains funds raised from the public. These public funds must be donated back to the community.

The treasurer disburses club funds when authorized by the Leo club board of directors. Each month, the treasurer submits a financial statement to the Leo club board of directors.

LEADERSHIP

Leo club board of directors: The Leo club president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and three elected Leo club members form the Leo club board of directors and execute the business of the club, including authorization of all club expenses.

Club meetings

Leo club meetings should follow basic meeting protocol known as Parliamentary procedure. This protocol is explained in publications such as Robert's Rules of Order (available in English only from the Lions Online Club Supply Catalog).

Through hands-on experience, Leo officers learn how to run meetings. This includes leading discussions, requesting votes on motions, tabling a topic for future discussion, or deferring a topic to a committee for discussion. (See the Leo Club Officers section of this handbook for more information.)

Membership, recruitment and club promotion

Leo club membership is open to any young person of good character. Leo club members should replace Leos who graduate out of the club. October is Leo Membership Growth Month (See Awards for Leos section of this handbook). During this month and throughout the year, the club should organize a Leo new member recruitment campaign. A list of potential new Leos may include:

- Friends
- Family members and relatives
- Fellow students
- Neighbors
- Sports teammates
- Co-workers
- Business associates.

Leos can contact the following people who interact with potential new members:

- Teachers
- Coaches
- Clergy
- Community leaders
- Family members
- Lions.

In addition, the club can:

- Place a recruitment announcement in a school or local newspaper.
- Place Leo recruitment posters throughout the community.
- Arrange a Leo information display at a school or at community events.
- Contact young community leaders who have been previously identified by local media.
- Create a Leo club Web site.

Leos should explain the benefits of membership to prospective new members, such as:

- Character development
- Community service
- Friendship
- Leadership opportunities
- Networking opportunities
- Project management development
- Social events
- Teamwork
- Time management development.

Leo clubs can publicize their club with local news coverage, newsletters, Web sites and flyers promoting service projects, social activities and fundraisers. (See the Resources section of this handbook for sample press releases.)

Leos can invite potential member(s) to attend a fundraiser or service project. During the event, introduce the prospective member to current Leos.

April is Leo Club Awareness Month. This is an ideal time for Leos to work with the sponsoring Lions club to promote the Leo Club Program. Possible activities include:

- A high visibility, Leo-Lion service project, such as a highway or beach clean up.
- A news release submitted to the local media about Leo accomplishments. (See the Resources section of this handbook for sample press releases.)
- A Leo club exhibit placed in a library or other public building that illustrates Leo club service projects.

Membership induction

An impressive ceremony should be created to induct new Leo member(s). (See the Resources section of this handbook for New Member Initiation ceremony.) Each new Leo receives a free Leo New Member Kit as part of the US$5 entrance fee. The sponsoring Lions club president, secretary, treasurer or Leo club advisor can order Leo New Member Kits from the Youth Programs Department at International Headquarters.

A HIGH VISIBILITY,
LEO-LION SERVICE
PROJECT, SUCH AS A
HIGHWAY OR BEACH
CLEAN UP.

Club unity

Social events - Outings, weekend retreats and holiday parties foster camaraderie and help build a Leo team. The annual officer installation ceremony, annual certification night anniversary celebration and the member initiation ceremonies can be fun social events. Publicize these events in local media. (See the Resources section for sample press releases.)

Meetings, forums and networking - There are Leo clubs in more than 130 countries providing young people with opportunities to establish a variety of social and professional contacts from all over the world. Leo district and multiple district meetings, area forums and the Annual Lions International Convention provide Leos with opportunities to meet and share ideas with Leos from near and far.

Leos can also participate in the International Club Twinning Program. A list of Leo clubs interested in a twinning relationship appears on the Lions Web site www.lionsclubs.org in the Leo Zone section. Leos can also contact other Leo clubs through the online Leo Club Directory.

Planning service projects

The Lions publication, Community Needs Assessment (MK-9) can help Leos organize a community service project and is available on the Lions Web site in the Resources, Publications, New Clubs section. When organizing a project, Leo clubs should:

- Identify a community need. Does the community need a new playground, a nature trail or a recycling center?
- Contact other community organizations. Verify that other organizations or government agencies are not currently undertaking this project or planning to do so in the near future.

- Calculate costs. Assess the current financial and manpower resources within the club. If needed, consider creating a joint project with another Leo club or with the sponsoring Lions club.
- Complete the details. Establish a timeline. Obtain permission from the school and legal clearance/permits from local authorities, if necessary. Obtain all necessary supplies.
- Publicize the project. Inform the media about the project. (See the Resources section of this handbook.) Place large signs throughout the area, if appropriate. (See the Resources section of this handbook for an explanation of Leo emblem use.)

Other international project ideas are:

Fundraising activities

When raising funds for the administrative or fundraising account, allow time for planning, publicizing and implementing the activity.

Possible fundraisers for the administrative account include:

- Membership dues
- Raffles among club members.

Popular public fundraising projects include:

- Car washes
- A dance for young people
- The sale of food, beverages, or homemade items at school or community events.

Plan first

- Define the club's fundraising goals. How much money does the club hope to raise? Is this a realistic goal?
- Agree on a project. Does the club have the manpower to complete the project? What supplies are needed? Does the club have the money to purchase needed supplies in advance?
- Agree on a date, time and place for the project. Be certain that the project does not conflict with other local events.

OPPORTUNITY

Publicize

- The club should submit details about the activity to club members, local newspapers, radio stations and television stations at least one month in advance.
- Members can place posters throughout the community. (See the Resources section in this handbook for an explanation of Leo emblem use.)
- Inform family members and friends about the fundraiser. Inform the sponsoring Lions club as well as neighboring Leo clubs.

Implementation

- Start the project on time

- Assign tasks to all involved
- Designate one Leo to assist with unexpected situations such as replenishing supplies during the event.

Additional service project suggestions appear on the Leo Zone section of the Lions Web site, in THE LION Magazine and in the Lions Opportunities for Youth brochure (IAD-130).

Maintain membership involvement

Leo members will remain interested in the Leo club as long as it is organized, fun, keeps members involved and continues to provide valuable community service. Observant Leo leaders can help prevent the exit of Leo members.

Common reasons for leaving

preventable action

Disorganized club leadership

Leo club officers should seek advice from the Leo club advisor, sponsoring Lions club, Leo district officers and district Leo club chairperson. The sponsoring Lions club or Leo district leaders can provide additional leadership training for club officers.

Inadequate orientation

Leo club officers must provide a thorough orientation for new members and conduct an impressive induction ceremony.

Social cliques

Leo club officers should combine new and old members to serve on committees.

Lack of recognition

Leo club officers should praise members and present awards whenever appropriate.

Lack of club membership

Leo club officers can meet with the Leo club advisor and district Leo club chairperson to discuss suggestions for growth and development and new ways to promote the Leo club and membership.

Lack of important activities

Leo club officers can form a committee to study local needs.

Lack of interest in a club project

Leo leaders can consider altering or adding projects using ideas from Leo members.

Liability insurance

Leo club members and their volunteers are covered under the association's comprehensive general liability insurance program. The policy covers injuries sustained by third parties as well as damage to property owned by third parties to a limit of US$1 million per occurrence if the Leo club is held legally responsible. However, the policy does not apply to damage to property used by Leos, or in their care, custody or control. The policy also does not provide personal or individual accident insurance. For more information, contact the Legal Department at International Headquarters.

Club cancellations

To cancel a Leo club, an officer of the sponsoring Lions club must contact the Youth Programs Department at International Headquarters in writing via mail, e-mail or fax. A notice of cancellation received by the Youth Programs Department at International Headquarters before December 15 entitles the sponsoring Lions club to a credit for the current fiscal year's Leo levy only.

In rare cases when a Lions club feels it is necessary to cancel its Leo club without the agreement of the Leo club members, the Lions club should give the Leo club 90 days' notice with a written report listing the reasons for cancellation. A copy of this report should be sent to the following officers:

- a. Leo club advisor
- b. District Leo club chairperson
- c. Multiple district Leo club chairperson (if any)
- d. Leo district president or associate district Leo club chairperson (if any)
- e. Leo multiple district president (if any)
- f. District governor.

The sponsoring Lions club's board of directors should give the above-named officers an opportunity to become acquainted with the situation and to consult with them. The Lions district cabinet, when reviewing the issues, should give the Leo district president, the associate district Leo club chairperson, or the Leo multiple district president, if any, the opportunity to be heard or to present written submissions.

If the issues cannot be resolved through the intervention of district officers within the 90-day period, the matter will be brought before the Lions club's membership at a regular meeting. If two-thirds of the Lions members in good standing vote to terminate sponsorship of the Leo club, an officer of the sponsoring Lions club should submit a written request to cancel the Leo club to the Youth Programs Department at International Headquarters, with copies to the above named officers, as applicable. Upon receipt of the cancellation notice, the international office will process cancellation of the Leo club.

In the event a sponsoring Lions club agrees to transfer Leo club sponsorship to another Lions club, the Leo club can avoid termination by following the club transfer policy below.

Club transfers

If a sponsoring Lions club has been cancelled, the Leo club has 180 days to find a new sponsoring Lions club to avoid termination. A letter from the new sponsoring Lions club (stating that it accepts sponsorship) should be submitted to the Youth Programs Department at International Headquarters. Upon receipt of the letter, a new Certificate of Organization will be produced and sent and the annual Leo levy will become the responsibility of the new sponsoring Lions club.

Leo district and multiple districts

Leo club activities at the district and multiple district level encourage Leos from clubs in the same territorial area to share ideas, promote the Leo Club Program, strengthen community service, focus on membership growth and expansion and offer further leadership development opportunities.

Structure

Six or more officially certified Leo clubs in a Lions district can form a Leo district. The district governor must approve the formation of a Leo district and the territorial boundaries of the Leo district must match those of the sponsoring Lions district. Leo districts are subject to the guidelines in the Standard Leo District Constitution, available on the Lions Web site in Resources, Publications, Leo/Youth.

Ten or more Leo clubs in a Lions multiple district can form a Leo multiple district. Leo membership within the multiple district must exceed 100 members. The Lions council of governors must approve the formation of a Leo multiple district. The Standard Leo Multiple District Constitution governs all Leo multiple district councils.

In July, report your Leo district/multiple district officers with the Annual Report for Leo District/Multiple District form (Leo-91) available on the Lions website in Resources, Forms, Leo/Youth.

District and multiple district (MD) officers	Terms
District/MD Leo president	Elected annually
District/MD Leo vice president	Elected annually
District/MD Leo secretary	Appointed annually by Leo District/MD president
District/MD Leo treasurer	Appointed annually by Leo District/MD president

District and multiple district responsibilities

Duties of the Leo district/multiple district officers are to:

- Provide a leadership-training seminar for district Leos.
- Promote at least one major service activity or fundraising activity with participation from the majority of the Leo clubs in the district.

- Report the Leo district conference to the Youth Programs Department at International Headquarters.

The sponsoring Lions district/multiple district must approve the following:

Leo club advisors

Leo club advisors around the world contribute to the success of the Leo Club Program. When working with young people, advisors fill the role of motivator, mentor, counselor and role model. Advisors guide Leo club members to develop effective community service projects and help increase confidence and leadership abilities. Advisors also provide Leos with recognition for their achievements.

Leo club advisor's role

Leo advisors accept many roles. Among them are:

- Mentor- Advisors guide Leo club officers and members to attain their potential as leaders and teach Leos the importance of planning community projects prior to implementation.
- Motivator- Advisors understand that there are many influences that motivate youth, including peer acceptance, recognition for deeds accomplished and a sense of personal achievement. Although advisors should motivate Leos to perform service activities, they should not impose their personal views on Leos.
- Counselor- Advisors must be familiar with the Standard Leo Club Constitution and Bylaws (see Resources section of this handbook). Advisors listen to the Leos and are sensitive to their needs. Advisors must know when to counsel the group and when to allow Leos to arrive at their own decisions.

- Liaison- The advisor is the link between the sponsoring Lions club and the Leo club. The advisor informs the Lions club of Leo activities and fosters a healthy relationship between the two clubs.
- Humanitarian- The advisor helps the Leo club members to understand the compassionate aspect of community service.

The Leo Zone features the Just for Advisors section. Visit www.lionsclubs.org and click on Youth Programs, Leo Clubs and then Just for Advisors. This section includes materials on how to be an effective mentor to a Leo club and a successful liaison between a Leo and Lions club.

Alpha clubs and Omega clubs

The role of the advisor is different in an Alpha Leo club than in an Omega Leo club. Alpha clubs (for young people age 12 to age of legal adulthood in their country) may seek more guidance in managing their club and implementing community service projects, which provides an opportunity for an advisor to increase the Leos' confidence and leadership abilities.

Omega Leo clubs (for young people from age of legal adulthood in their country to an age determined locally) focus on professional development, developing community links to support community service projects and social networking. Leo advisors may find themselves in more of a mentoring capacity and can instill in Omega Leos the Lions' mission "We Serve."

Promote Leo clubs

To promote a Leo club, submit press releases to local newspapers and/or radio and TV stations. Encourage the Leo members to create flyers for their events and post them in the community. Use the PR Tools section of the Lions Web site for templates, support and ideas. (Also, see the Resources section of this handbook.)

During April, celebrate Leo Club Awareness Month. Organize a joint activity between the sponsoring Lions club and Leo club.

Encourage Leos to become Lions

Leos who have attained the legal age of adulthood and meet other qualifications may be invited to join a Lions club. The following programs encourage Leos to serve as Lions:

- Leo Completion of Service Certificate: Leos in good standing can receive a waiver of the Lions club new member fee or the Lions club charter member fee. Sponsoring Lions club presidents, secretaries or Leo club advisors can request the free Leo Completion of Service Certificate for the Leo who is leaving, from the Youth Programs Department at International Headquarters.
- Leo Years of Service Transfer Program: To include years of Leo service on a Lions club membership history, Leos can complete the Leo Years of Service Transfer Record (available on the Lions Web site). The Lions club secretary submits the form with the Monthly Membership Report form to the Club Records and Billing Department at International Headquarters.
- New Century Lions Club: Created for young adults up to the age of 35, New Century Lions Clubs have more flexibility such as, the submission of fewer membership forms and more Web-based communications. For more information, contact the New Clubs and Marketing Department at International Headquarters.
- Campus Lions Club: A regular Lions club that is organized on a college campus. Members can include students of legal age of adulthood in their country, as well as faculty and alumni of the school. Campus Lions clubs address campus issues as well as other needs in their community. For more information, contact the New Clubs and Marketing Department at International Headquarters.
- Leo Lions Club: Leos can form their own Lions club if they are of legal age of adulthood in their country. Leos can keep the word "Leo" in their club name. A Leo Lions club can be chartered with 20 or more members. The club must meet all Lions club requirements. For more information, contact the New Clubs and Marketing Department at International Headquarters.
- Special Leo Tab: Former Leo members can purchase a Leo tab to wear with their Lions pin. The tab is available in the Lions Online Club Supply Catalog.

Leo club officers

The success of each Leo club depends on the dedication of its leaders. Leo officers' commitment to promoting the ideals of the Leo Club Program results in pride and satisfaction for them, the Leo club, the sponsoring Lions club and the community. Leo leaders make many decisions that will affect the success and future of the club.

What makes a leader?

Energy, self-confidence, intelligence, persistence and the ability to express oneself are all leadership traits. Additional characteristics include:

- Trustworthiness
- Fairness
- Knowledge of individual needs and interests of club members
- A vision for the future of the club
- Acceptance of responsibility.

Leo club officers' role

Strong Leo leaders form the foundation of successful Leo clubs. Brief descriptions of officers' roles and responsibilities are featured in the Leo Club Administration section of this handbook.

Leo club presidents

A Leo club president's first resource is his or her Leo club advisor. Appointed by the sponsoring Lions club, Leo club advisors are experienced Lions. If the club is school-based, a teacher or counselor may act as a faculty-advisor. Active Leo members are another important resource for Leo club presidents. Good leaders can develop club members into a successful team.

Meetings

Leo club presidents are responsible for conducting well-organized club meetings. A written outline or agenda helps facilitate meetings.

Meeting agendas can include:

- Call to order by the president.
- An opening ceremony, such as the national anthem, salute to the flag or other local custom.
- A roll call of members and the introduction of guests.
- The introduction of speakers.
- The reading of the secretary's report and minutes from the previous meeting.
- The treasurer's report (a copy of this report should be filed for an audit).
- The reading of minutes from the Leo board of director's meeting.
- The reading of new correspondence received since the last meeting.

- The reading of committee reports and the approval of committee actions.
- The discussion of old business.
- The presentation of new business.
- Adjournment.

Club presidents handle many situations. Conflicts, which occasionally occur during club meetings, may be minimized by:

- Recognizing speakers from the floor.
- Deciding when to bring a motion to a vote.
- Using the gavel to maintain order during meetings.
- Adjusting the written meeting agenda to shorten or lengthen the meeting.

Team building

Successful Leo clubs need strong team members. Leo officers should encourage fellow Leos to accept leadership roles to help make the club stronger.

Building a Leo team begins with:

- The establishment of long-term (more than a year) and short-term (one year or less) club goals, which include service projects, fundraisers, membership campaigns and social events.
- An explanation to all club members of the overall task(s).
- A request for additional ideas and suggestions.
- The creation of committees and the assignment of specific tasks.

Encourage club members by:

- Welcoming and introducing new Leos to current members.
- Including Leos in projects that utilize their talents and interests. For example, an artistic Leo may appreciate the opportunity to draw a poster for a Leo service project. A member who likes animals may gladly organize a service project at the local animal shelter. These opportunities provide members with a sense of belonging and achievement.

- Praising club members for their accomplishments.
- Nominating Leos and the club for Lions Clubs International awards when eligible.

Encourage fellowship among club members by:

- Rewarding Leos in the form of public recognition or a Leo award.
- Increasing the prestige of the club through local publicity.
- Celebrating successful Leo club projects.

Committee involvement

The following suggested Leo committees can help Leo leaders organize Leo activities throughout the year:

- Athletic
- Attendance
- Election
- Finance
- Fundraising
- International relations
- Membership
- Projects
- Publicity
- Social.

Club elections

Hard-working committee chairpersons are excellent prospects for future club officers. In March, the club president appoints a committee to develop a roster of officer candidates.

Candidates must agree to accept the position if elected. Committee members cannot nominate themselves as officer candidates. On election day (on or around April 15), the club president will request the roster. Additional nominations may be accepted from Leos in attendance. Written ballots should be used when there are multiple candidates for a single office. Winning candidates are those who receive a simple majority of the votes cast.

After the election, the club secretary submits the Leo Club Officers and Membership Report form (Leo-72) to the Youth Programs Department at International Headquarters by mail, fax, or e-mail by May 15. Copies of the report should be sent to the sponsoring Lions club and the district Leo club chairperson.

Suggestions for an appropriate installation ceremony are available in Leo Club Officer Installation and New Member Initiation (Leo-8). The publication is available on the Lions Web site and in the Resources section of this handbook.

Social events and networking

When planning a Leo club calendar, include social events to build friendships among club members and to celebrate club successes. Appropriate social activities vary according to the age of the club members. Possible Leo social activities include attendance at or participation in:

- A Leo club certification signing ceremony or a Leo club anniversary celebration.
- An induction ceremony of new Leo members, or the installation of new club officers (see the Leo Club Officer Installation and New Member Initiation [Leo-8]).
- A holiday party.
- A bowling league or a Leo soccer, cricket or baseball team.
- Leo area forums or the Annual Lions International Convention.

Leo Club Officer Installation and New Member Initiation

Leo Club Procedures

After organizing a new Leo club, the sponsoring Lions club acquires certain responsibilities. The most obvious of these is to arrange a well-organized meeting for the presentation of the Certificate of Organization. This meeting corresponds to a Charter Night meeting for a Lions club and should be a memorable meeting for all concerned. Invite local civic or school officials to the event. Perhaps the entire membership of the Lions club could attend and consider this a joint meeting or a spouses' night. The evening will vary according to local customs and conditions.

The following list is a guideline only. Clubs can delete or add items as necessary.

- Meeting called to order
- Suitable opening (may include a song)
- Salute to the flag
- Invocation
- Dinner
- Introduction of people at speaker's table
- Brief description of Leo club (given by Leo club advisor or Lions club president)
- Induction of new members, installation of Leo club officers
- Presentation of Certificate of Organization
- Presentation of gift (the Lions club may present a gift to the Leo club. The Lions Supply Catalog includes items such as a gong, gavel, banner, flag, etc.)
- Program or entertainment
- Adjourn meeting

In a meeting such as this, the small, often overlooked details can add much to the final success of the function. Consider the following:

- A printed program - listing the agenda and also the names of each officer and each member of the Leo club. (This provides a fine souvenir.)
- Greeting committee - to greet members and guests as they arrive. Greeters also assure that each guest is properly seated.
- Decorations - welcome signs, flowers on the speaker's table.
- Public address system - If the meeting is in a large room, make sure that all guests will be able to hear the speakers.

Ceremony for Installation of Leo Club Officers

The Leo club advisor or a Lions club officer presides over this ceremony.

Installing officer: "It is my privilege to be here to install the officers of the _____ Leo Club.

Having received the trust of the club membership, I am sure that they will carry out faithfully their duties with respect to their community and their fellow members.

To that purpose, I would like to call each to the podium, to repeat the duties that each has freely accepted upon his/her nomination as a Leo club officer."

Installing treasurer: "Leo _____, you have been elected to serve your club as treasurer, and as such you will receive all monies and deposit the same in a bank recommended by the board of directors. You will pay out money on their authority and will prepare and submit monthly financial reports to them. You will also be vigilant in keeping and building the spirit of unity and cooperation with the other Leo club officers, the board of directors, and the Leo advisor.

Will you perform these duties to the best of your ability?"

Treasurer: "I will."

Installing secretary: "Leo _____, you have been elected to serve your club as secretary. You will be under the supervision and direction of the president and the board of directors. You shall keep the general club records, including the board of director's meeting minutes, officers' lists, committee appointments, attendance records, and up-to-date membership lists. You will be responsible for sending activity reports and the Annual Leo Club Membership Report to the international office. You will also be vigilant in keeping and building the spirit of unity and cooperation with the other Leo club officers, the board of directors and the Leo advisor.

Will you perform these duties to the best of your ability?"

Secretary: "I will."

Installing vice president: "Leo _____, you have been elected to serve your club as vice president. You shall occupy the position of the president if, for any reason, the president is unable to perform his/her duties. In this event, you shall have the same authority as the president and shall fulfill his/her role accordingly. You will also help the president in fostering unity among the Leo club members, with the sponsoring Lions club, and with the Leo club advisor. Finally, you will support and aid the president in his/her initiatives and service projects.

Will you, as vice president, perform your duties to the best of your ability?"

Vice President: "I will."

Installing Leo club president: "Leo _____, you have been elected to the office of president of your club. You are the club's chief executive officer. You will do all in your power to foster unity among club members. You will also work with the sponsoring Lions club and the Leo club advisor.

You will preside at all meetings and shall be chairperson of the board of directors. You will see that the committees function properly, call for regular committee reports, and oversee regular elections. You will also work to determine service needs in your community and motivate your club's members to respond to them generously.

Will you, as president, perform these duties to the best of your ability?"

President: "I will."

Installing Leo club directors: (The installing officer addresses the entire group of directors.) "You have been elected to the important position of director. You will form part of the executive board of the Leo club. You will faithfully attend the regular and special meetings of your club. You will do your best to form and carry out its policies. As a member of the board of directors, you will be vigilant in authorizing all payments and refrain from creating indebtedness beyond the income of the club. Nor will you disburse funds for purposes non-essential to the objective of the club.

Will you perform these duties to the best of your ability?"

Leo club directors: "I will."

Initiation Ceremony for New Members

The Leo club president, the Leo club advisor or a specific Lions club officer performs the ceremony for the initiation of new members.

The presiding officer calls the meeting to order with these words: "We are about to begin the initiation ceremony which will welcome new members to the _____ Leo Club. This is a most important occasion for these members and for our club, and I sincerely request the attention and silence of the membership during the ceremony. Please withhold any applause or demonstrations until it is complete. I will now call the names of the new members and as I do, I would request that they rise and come forward."

The presiding officer calls the names of the new members. When all the candidates are standing, the officer says:

"On behalf of the officers and members, I welcome you to the _____ Leo Club. You have been invited to become members, and we are all happy and proud of your decision to accept.

Membership in a Leo club is a privilege. You are about to enter a program that extends throughout the world. It began in 1967 as an official activity of The International Association of Lions Clubs. Leo goals include high moral standards, personal responsibility, an attitude of cheerfulness and understanding, and in addition, extending a helping hand to those in need.

Now, in your own community and with your own acquaintances, an entire series of challenges await. You are not alone in your efforts. At all times, you can count on the encouragement and cooperation of your fellow Leo club members, officers, and the Leo club advisor. They will be happy to help you achieve the high goals which you have adopted.

Once again, I express my congratulations to you for having joined this club. I now ask that you repeat after me the obligation of membership: 'I...(each one should state his/her name)...in the presence of the members of the Leo club...take on this solemn obligation...to abide by the constitution and bylaws of the club...to attend all meetings regularly...to support and further the interests of the club...in all its undertakings...and to contribute my fair share...towards the financial support of the club...I further declare that I will assist in maintaining...building...and strengthening the membership of the club...that I will help the club...by actively serving on committees and in other capacities ...where my efforts are needed...And finally...that I will develop in myself...those qualities...of cheerfulness, service and loyalty...which should characterize a Leo club member...at all times.' You are now members of the _____ Leo Club."

(The presiding officer now pins a lapel button on each new Leo club member and presents a membership card and membership certificate.)

After induction:

- Assign the new member to serve as greeter at the next few club meetings. This will give the newcomer an opportunity to meet every member.
- Integrate the new member into an existing committee.
- Invite the new member to an informal social gathering with the officers of the club.
- The sponsor should ensure that the new member receives proper orientation to the Leo Club Program and Lionism and a New Member Kit with lapel pin. The sponsor should be willing to answer all questions and should offer to accompany the new member to the first few meetings.

Whenever a Leo moves to another location, officers should ensure that the member joins the local Leo club. If a Leo club does not exist, the officer should encourage the member to speak to a local Lions club about sponsoring a Leo club.

The future of every Leo club depends on current Leo officers and members. When the Leos work together, recruiting and motivating new members provides club growth. Assuring the continued existence of a club is a valuable service that Leos can perform for their community.
